How to play

Sentence Snakes

1. Play with two to four players. You need a counter each and one dice.
2. Roll and move. Say a sentence that uses the word on your square. The word can be anywhere in the sentence.
3. If your sentence is good, stay. If you cannot make one, a friend helps you and you miss your next go.
4. Land on a snake head? Stretch your sentence: add because, and, but or an adjective to make it longer. If you manage, you stay put. If not, slide down the snake to its tail.
5. There are no ladders in this game, so the snakes are the only trouble. The first player to FINISH wins.
6. Teachers: for beginners, accept one word and a gesture. For Level 2 and above, ask for a sentence of at least six words with a connective.
