

Apostrophes

We use *a*postrophes to:

- show missing letters: do not becomes don't
- show who owns something: Sam's bag
- for plural owners, put the apostrophe after the s: the dogs' bones

---

Examples

I can't find Mia's pencil.

The girls' coats are on the pegs.

english.litlings.com | free to print and copy for classroom use