

Commas

We use commas to:

- separate things in a list
- come after a starter word or phrase: However, Later that day,
- separate extra information inside a sentence

Examples

I bought apples, pears and bananas.

Later that day, we went home.